

NAEVE

SERGEANT NAEVE

MENTAL CHARACTERISTICS

PERSONAL HISTORY

Naeve was born as the daughter of a young trader and a seamstress. Her father perished from a fever when she was very young and her life alone with her mother was difficult at best afterward. She doesn't speak much about her family but has confirmed in the past that her mother died shortly after she enlisted in the military, showing very little emotion on the topic.

Her path through the military was beset with many challenges. Disregarded by her superiors and physically weaker than many of her peers, Naeve fought for her place without a champion, earning much of her accomplishments by being clever, faster, and resilient where others would give up. She made more rivals than friends but did bond with another female recruit in the field infantry division, Jolanta Maras.

After rising to the rank of Private in the military at the age of 18, she met the Wolf Witcher, Ceadric. Initially wary of him, she stood out from those around her by showing no fear in his presence and becoming frustrated and confrontational in the face of his offhand requests for information. After losing her temper with him in the middle of a crowded market in Rivia, their relationship improved; Ceadric began treating her like a human being in the wake of her demands and Naeve was positively surprised that he was treating her as an equal without needing any prompting.

Sometime after this, in the midst of a hunt for a pack of ghouls in the countryside, the pair began a romance.

During the Nilfgaardian invasion of Lyria and Rivia, Naeve fought alongside Queen Meve.

After the nation fell and the Northern military collapsed, Naeve splintered off with the remains of 14th Rivian Battalion and the 7th Field Infantry Unit to form the Lyrian Liberation Front, a small unit of a hundred or so troops under the command of Field Marshal Edgan.
